

Toronto Agile and Software 2014

The Toronto Agile Community presents the 6th Annual Agile Conference (formerly called Agile Tour Toronto) being held at the Hilton Toronto on Monday, November 10th. This popular conference has sold out each year, providing attendees and sponsors with numerous opportunities to benefit from this lively, informative and interactive event.

The conference will feature seven concurrent interactive sessions and plenty of opportunities to network. Whether you are new to Agile or have a lot of experience, this conference promises to deliver value to all levels of expertise.

For business audiences, you will gain key insights and learning on the practical implementation of Agile methodologies within companies. For practitioners, you'll find out about the latest developments, tools and methodologies.

Conference Tickets are SOLD OUT!

Sorry, but we are sold out again. See you next year.

Keynote Address - "Agile - a Courageous Choice"- Olaf Lewitz

Olaf Lewitz is a Certified Scrum Coach, agile practitioner, Kanban expert and a StrategicPlay Facilitator. He makes people happy, de-scales organizations and helps individuals trust themselves and one another. Olaf is a consultant, coach and active connector in the international agile community. He has led, trained, and coached teams and organizations of various industries and sizes during the past 10+ years, focusing on effectively shipping quality software. Olaf concentrates on organizational growth, cultural transformation and increasing potential to delight both employees and customers.

Olaf is the Trust Artist. Since 2009 his practice has been dedicated to agile transformation. In 2012 he became a VisionTemenos Fellow to help individuals and leaders better understand their motivations and their relationships to the people and situations they interact with.

With more than 25 years of professional software development experience which includes 12 years of agile practice, he is a veteran in this field. He can help you with non-working agile and on the path to a wholehearted business.
