Toronto Agile Community 2019 Conference is November 5th

Planning for our annual big event, the Fall Conference, is in full swing. This will be our largest and best conference to date.

Details for this year's event are available on the Conference page. We are pleased to announce David Marquet as our keynote, author of Amazon #1 Best Seller: Turn the Ship Around!

Registration is currently open; if you'd like to attend, please go to Eventbrite to sign up.

If you'd like to speak, we are accepting session proposals until August 23rd. On our submissions system, ConfEngine, you can peruse proposals that have been submitted so far and add your own.

Lastly, we are also still accepting sponsorships for the conference. Join our growing list of prestigious organizations who are committed to supporting Agile in the Toronto area. Please refer to the Sponsorship page for more details.

See you on November 5th!

OPENSOURCE AGILITY and INVITING LEADERSHIP certification Workshop offered on Sunday April 14

Daniel Mezick is our Open Space facilitator for the April 13 event. He is also the author of the two books, INVITING LEADERSHIP and THE OPENSOURCE AGILITY HANDBOOK, the formulator of Engagement Model concept and the OpenSpace Agility (OSA) Engagement Model & method. These tools have the potential to literally transform your Agile transformation.

On Sunday April 14 you can learn how to leverage the concept of invitation-over-delegation to improve the results you are getting. Daniel is teaching in detail from both of his books and students receive these books, the teaching, and Level 1 certifications in both OpenSpace Agility and the Inviting Leadership method. Lunch is included and the seating is limited to only 16 students. You can learn more about this learning-with-certification opportunity and register here: <https://newtechusa.net/toronto-2019/>
